

In Case of an Emergency

1. Remain at the post with the children. Group children to maintain control.
2. Stop crossing the children until the situation is under control.
3. If possible, call 911. If not, ask others to call 911.
4. If a victim can walk, he or she should move out of the road. Otherwise, a victim should not be moved except by qualified emergency medical personnel.
5. Always notify your supervisor as soon as possible of any emergency.

Crossing Guard Expectations and Duties

- Be on time. Call out sick well in advance.
- Always wear reflective vest and carry STOP sign while on post.
- Maintain a neat appearance. Keep uniform in good condition.
- Scan the area for hazardous conditions (potholes, obscured signs, ice, snow, etc.)
- Park your car in a safe and legal place where it will not obstruct your vision of traffic.
- Remain standing at post during hours of duty. Never sit in a vehicle.

- Be courteous, pleasant, and business-like with children and adults.
- Leave post at end of shift, unless students are approaching the crosswalk.
- Be professional; do not smoke, eat, drink, chew gum, use profanity, or use or be under the influence of drugs or alcohol while on duty.
- Do not use a personal cell phone or other electronic device unless necessary to report an emergency or to call for support.
- Be an authority figure. Teach by example.
